

Introduction to Computer Applications

Study Strategies Rubric

Criteria	4	3	2	1	Score
Current Study Habits (Three Slides)	The content is informative yet concise and incorporates ideas from the lesson; the presentation is engaging and clear.	The required content is presented. The presentation is clear.	The content is unclear, too long, or too short; the presentation is less engaging.	The content is unclear, too long, or too short, and does not address topic; the presentation is not engaging.	/4
Test Question Strategies (Five Slides)	The presentation includes strategies for all five question types. Strategies are presented in an informative, engaging way.	The presentation includes strategies for all five question types. The strategies are presented clearly.	The presentation does not include strategies for all five question types. The strategies are not presented in an informative, engaging way.	The presentation is missing strategies for some question types. The presentation is not engaging.	/4
Education and Career Goals, Short-Term and Long-Term Objectives (Three Slides)	The goals and objectives are presented clearly and display thoughtfulness. The short-term and long-term objectives are appropriate and realistic.	The goals and objectives are presented clearly. The short-term and long-term objectives are identified.	The goals and objectives are not presented clearly and/or indicate a lack of thoughtfulness.	There is information missing from the goals or objectives sections. The existing information is poorly thought through or unrealistic.	/4
Presentation Style and Appearance	The presentation incorporates a Design theme, images, font color and style, and text animations in a way that enhances the presentation.	The presentation incorporates a Design theme, images, font color and style, and text animations.	The presentation is missing some of the required elements (a Design theme, images, font formatting, or text animations).	The presentation is missing some of the required elements (a Design theme, images, font formatting, or text animations). The presentation is unclear and uninteresting.	/4
Comments:					Total: /16